HANNA GAINING!

Reports Indicate That He Has Enough Votes to Elect.

Three of the Bolters Publicly Pledge
Themselves for Him.

Efforts to Get Foraker to Participate in the Fight Fail.

INDIGNATION MEETINGS HELD.

Columbus, Ohio, Jan. 8.—There are reliable reports to-day indicating that Hanna has the necessary seventy-three votes. The opposition depended upon the following ten republicans voting with sixty-five democratic members of the legislature: Representatives Mason and Bramley, of Cuyahoga; Griffith, of Union; Olin, of Hamilton; Scott, of Fulton; Redkey, of Highland; Rutan, of Carroll; Mannel, of Montgomery; Senator Burke, of Cleveland. This would make the joint ballot stand seventy-five to seventy—against Hanna.

At a public meeting in Dayton last night, at which resolutions were adopted condemning Gov. Bushnell and the bolting republicans, and demanding that Charles F. Kurtz resign as the Ohio member of the national republican committee, Representative Mannel made a speech pledging himself unequivocally for Hanna. Griffith, of Union, and Jones, of Stark, are reported to have done the same thing at their homes, and there are like reports from Rutan, Carroll and Redkey, of Highland.

There are apparently seventy-two members pledged to Hanna publicly, but that is one short and the opposition concede no less except Mannel. Anti-Hanna men admit that after securing control of both branches of the legislature, they made a mistake in adjourning from Wednesday to Monday and having the members go home till inauguration day. Republican members co-operating with the democrats against Hanna were thus confronted with indignation meetings at their homes, which are likely to turn the tide in favor of Hanna.

The opposition made persistent efforts last night for Senator Foraker to come here but the senior senator left Cincinnati for Washington without stopping at Columbus. All efforts to get either Foraker or John R. McLean here have failed and they are credited with being the two great factors in the "combine."

Griffith announced to a meeting of his constituents last night and again to-day that he did not want to vote for Hanna, but if it was their wish he would. There is no lack of effort in Union county now on the part of the people to express their wishes to their representative. Hanna's list stood 74 to 71 against the senator yesterday, but with the change of Mannel and Griffith, Hanna men claim they have the necessary 73 votes to 72 for the opposition.

KURTZ'S STATEMENT.
Charles L. Kurtz, the leader of the opposition to Hanna, to-day handed the following to a representative of the Associated Press:

"The incorrectness of the claims by Hanna were proven by the test votes in the matter of house organization."
"He claimed the organization up to the time the test vote was taken, and lost."
"The same claims are being made again on the senatorship, and the result will be the same."
"Hanna will not be elected senator."
(Signed) "C. L. KURTZ."

Merit System Bitterly Attacked

Major Handy, Special Commissioner to the ENGLISH FLEET FOR CHINA.

Washington, Jan. 8.—The civil service debate was continued in the house to-day until 2 o'clock. The remainder of the session, under a special order, was devoted to eulogizing the memory of the late Representative Wright, of Massachusetts.

Cortis (rep., Mich.) was the first speaker to-day. He favored radical modification of the law. He thought, constitutionally, the heads of departments were clothed with the power of appointing their subordinates. To that extent he thought, if tested, the law would be unconstitutional. He believed the right of removal should be restored and the tenure of office limited.

Heppburn (rep., Iowa) spoke for an hour against what he termed the popular impression of the so-called merit system. The public, he argued, had been utterly misled by the high sounding titles referred to.

In some things the old system at its worst was superior to the new. "My colleagues in this house," said he, "know the qualifications of their constituents and in the selection of candidates for office have everything at stake. I believe there is greater probability of wisdom in selection and beneficent result under the old system than this dark fed subterranean method into which we have fallen in this latter time."

He believed the appointive power and the power of removal should be lodged in the same hands and should be unlimited. Amid a burst of applause from the galleries and floor he insisted that political workers were entitled to and should be accorded recognition. If there were to be no reward for workers, workers in the future would be more loyal to rich contributors instead of to their party and their country. If the present system continued the influence of rich men in politics would grow steadily.

Heppburn said he knew that his frank expressions would earn criticism for him and it would probably be said he placed himself on a low political plane, but these were his convictions and he would utter them.

Clarke, republican, (N. H.) closed the debate for the day with some remarks in favor of modifying the law. He said "Any old thing" was better than the present law. (laughter.)

Major Handy Dead.
Augusta, Ga., Jan. 8.—Major Moses P. Handy died to-day. Handy has been an invalid for two months. He was taken ill in Paris, whither he had gone as a special commissioner of the United States to the French exposition in 1903.

Major Handy was born in Virginia, his father being a Methodist clergyman. He entered the confederate service and served with gallantry during the closing months of the war. He was employed by the New York Tribune as a special correspondent during the Cuban troubles and won distinction by his report of the Virginia massacre. Later he became managing editor of the Philadelphia Times and subsequently editor of the Philadelphia Daily News.

He moved to Chicago in 1893 to accept the position as chief of the bureau of publicity and promotion of the World's Columbian exposition.

At the close of the fair he went to New York and engaged in literary work and newspaper correspondence for a year. He returned to Chicago as editor of the Times Herald in 1905.

Chicago Stock Market.
Chicago, Jan. 8.—Cattle—Receipts, 300; market, unchanged.
Beef, $3.85; hogs, $3.25; cows and heifers, $2.00; stock and feeders, $3.25; Texas steers, $3.25; 4.25.
Sheep—Receipts, 3,000; market steady.
Native sheep, $2.00; 4.05; westerns, $3.00; 4.40; lambs, $4.00; 5.75.

The Humane Society.
Simla, Jan. 8.—General Sir Bindon Blood has made a good beginning publishing the Bureaus for joining Swat in an attack on Malakand pass. Without serious resistance he captured the Tag Tanga and Peral passes. The Afridis deserted Khyber pass.

British Ships for China.
London, Jan. 8.—A rumor is in circulation, emanating from the dock yards at Portsmouth, that a flying squadron of British ships will be formed for service in Chinese waters.

That Land Purchase.
Edinburg, Jan. 8.—The land purchased for the Boys' Bible and Industrial Farm was a cash purchase, as THE CITIZEN stated, but, sorry to say, the gap, out of which the money was taken, is open and will have to be filled.

Our subscriptions are not payable until June 1 next, at which time we hope to be able to pay up in full for the land and some improvements.

The sale was worked up by George H. Moore, and he left nothing undone that could be done to get the papers all in good shape, for all of which we owe him thanks.

The Mexican preachers of the Mission have been very generous and have shown much interest in the enterprise. Out of 450 subscriptions, it is fair to state that they and others employed in the Spanish work have subscribed at least $600.

MURDERER COMMITTS SUICIDE.

Little Rock, Ark., Jan. 8.—Four colored men have been lynched in the vicinity of Bearden, Ark., within a few days. Two were rapists and two murderers. The rapists, Devoe and Huntley, were swung up near Harlow Mill ranch, about three miles north of Bearden, while the murderers met their fate near the town of Little Bay, a few miles south of Bearden. The work was done by separate mobs.

Devoe and Huntley were lynched for crime committed a year ago. They attempted to outrage Mrs. Payne, a respectable white woman, in Bearden. Both negroes escaped and remained out of the vicinity twelve months.

The two other men lynched were accused of the murder of Bart Frederick, a water pump for the Cotton Belt railroad at Kingland, a few days ago. Frederick was thrown from a velocipede and murdered. His pockets were rifled and a watch taken.

BOAT BLOWN UP.
Captain and All on Board Killed on the Ohio River.

Pittsburg, Jan. 8.—The tow boat, Percy Kelsey, blew up on the Ohio river near Glenfield, Pa., this morning. The steamer left here for Cincinnati with a tow of seven barges and two flats loaded with coal. There was a crew of nine men and a number of dock hands. It is believed that Captain Leslie Jones and all on board were killed. The boat was owned by W. H. Brown's Sons, of this city, and was valued at $25,000.

Captain Jones and three others were picked up alive but badly injured, and one body floated ashore near Neville Island. It is believed the rest of the crew were killed. When the boat blew up Pilot Woods was asleep in the pilot house only a few feet from Captain Jones. The pilot was thrown high in the air, and fell right where a few minutes before the pilot house was. Woods was dead when found and his son, only a few feet away, was injured very badly.

Murderer Kills Himself.
Bedford, Iowa, Jan. 8.—James R. McConnie, justice of the peace and a prominent citizen, who last night shot and killed his divorced wife while trying to obtain possession of their children, was found dead to-day in the yard of Sheriff Lane. He had evidently shot himself, for there was a bullet hole in his head.
